TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading- The Eleven and the women devoted themselves to prayer.

Second Reading- Glorify God if you suffer for the name of Christian.

Gospel- The Son will give eternal life to all those who are given to him by the Father.

Reflection

In the Gospel and first reading for this weekend we hear about people devoting time to prayer for the mission of the church. Jesus, in the upper room, begins the chain of prayer by praying for his disciples' success in carrying on his mission on earth. After Jesus' ascension into heaven Luke depicts the disciples gathering again for prayer. Before they can go forth in mission they need wisdom, fortitude, knowledge, and the many other gifts of the Holy Spirit. It is through prayer that they will receive those gifts. And once they have begun their mission, our second reading reminds us that they will encounter suffering, doubts, and persecution. Paul reminds us that Jesus is the head and we are the body. All that he was, we are. All he underwent, we must undergo. In his death, we see ours; in his resurrection, our resurrection; in his ascension, our ascension; in his eternal life, our eternal life. His absence is necessary for a new presence. Our faith and our faith in action must validate this today.
