Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time October 28, 2018

*The Lord has done great things for us;
we are glad indeed.
— Psalm 126:3*

First Reading - I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble.
Second Reading - It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you.
Gospel - Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way .

I WANT TO SEE

You have to admire Bartimaeus for sheer dogged persistence. A blind beggar, Bartimaeus called repeatedly to Jesus and would not be hushed. He "saw" Jesus--the healer, the forgiver of sins, the son of David. Jesus healed Bartimaeus, saying "Your faith has saved you." Blindness was common in ancient times, and people believed it was the result of sin. We do not think that nowadays, but what about the spiritual blindness that holds us back from a full Christian life? Pride, jealousy, envy, greed, and similar sins are the usual suspects. But consider also lack of trust in God, failure to really believe the good news of Christ, a weak prayer life, and reluctance to do good. And let's not forget hope. If we truly believe that sin and death are not the end, and that eternal life waits for those who love and serve God, then we cannot be blind to hope.
