Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe November 25, 2018

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth.

— Revelation 1:5

First Reading - One like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship.

Second Reading - Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead.

Gospel - For this I came into the world, to testify to the truth.

TRUTH TO POWER

On this solemnity of Christ the King we are reminded how Jesus spoke truth to power--the power of the mighty Roman Empire in the person of Pontius Pilate. Pilate's role in this province was to keep order, prevent uprisings, and ensure that taxes were paid to Rome. Today's Gospel reading shows that Pilate couldn't quite decide what to make of Jesus. He obviously wasn't a mob leader, a zealot, or a con man. Jewish leaders had told Pilate of Jesus' claim to be King of the Jews, which could be interpreted as a potential threat to Roman rule. Jesus said if he were claiming kingly rule in Judea his followers would be rising up in revolt. Jesus said to Pilate, "My kingdom does not belong to this world." More importantly, he added, "I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice". Pilate was reluctant to condemn Jesus because he could find no fault in him, but his reluctance was finally overridden by fear of a riot or even rebellion by the Jews against Roman rule. Jesus "suffered under Pontius Pilate," as we say in the Creed, because only Pilate could order crucifixion. The Gospels clearly show the political maneuvering between Roman rulers and Jewish religious leaders, neither of whom wanted any threat to their particular powers. Jesus was outside their usual frame of reference. He was a puzzle and a contradiction to them. He ruled by neither violence nor oppression; he simply witnessed to God's truth. Anyone seeking this truth has only to listen and to respond to become part of the kingdom of God.

Pope's Universal Intention: In the Service of Peace

Lighting Hearts on Fire Diocesan Marian Consecration Preparation Year

Bishop Checchio has announced his plan to consecrate the Diocese of Metuchen to Our Lady of Guadalupe in 2019. There will be a year-long preparation process launching December 12th, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, with Evening Prayer at the Cathedral of St. Francis in Metuchen at 7:30pm. All are invited to attend. Our Lady of Guadalupe is the Patroness of the Americas and was also given the title, The Star of the New Evangelization, by St. John Paul II. The purpose of this consecration is to invoke her aid for our diocese so that we can be spiritually renewed and equipped to live out our call to evangelize more faithfully. For more info: www.LightingHeartsOnFire.com

The Diocese of Metuchen is seeking people ages 18 and older to participate in a 2019 production of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Dear Rev. John Stec:

On behalf of the Somerville Columbiettes, I wish to express our sincere appreciation for the generous donations from St. Mary of Czestochowa parishioners totaling $534.81 for our Pennies from Heaven Collection for our seminarians and postulants!!

The "Pennies from Heaven" Program is run by the NJ State Council of Columbiettes and 100% of all proceeds are distributed to seminarians and postulants in New Jersey to help defray the cost of their studies. As one of our patronesses, St. Therese the Little Flower, once said "What matters in life is not great deeds, but great love". We thank you for your support of those that have dedicated their lives and love to God.

Please know that your donation is greatly appreciated by the Columbiettes and the recipients. Thank you again for your generous support and assistance to help us continue our services to our seminarians and postulants in New Jersey.
