Gospel - The Spirit of the Lord has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives.

REFLECTION

From the very beginning, Jesus recognized that the greatest desire of the human heart is to possess a life of love forever with God. If Jesus had recognized and acknowledged that desire, but had not shown us how to realize it, his life and ministry would have been the cruelest form of false advertising. His gospel would have been anything but good news. But Jesus did show us how to realize it: by bringing comfort to the poor, liberty to captives, sight to blind eyes, freedom to the oppressed, and an invitation to all to the favor of God's reign. Jesus' life was a model of good news living. When we strive to live a life of good news, then, not only do we possess God, our greatest desire, but we also allow God to possess the hopes, dreams, and desires of all those we touch.

The mission of Jesus is given to us in baptism. That is favor and gift. The way we choose to return that favor, to use that gift, to live out that mission, is ministry. If our heart's desire is the same as Jesus', then our ministry will be remarkably like his. Oh, not in manner, or clothes, or speech, or dress--all those unimportant things--but in action, intent, relationship, and decision--all those most important things. The ministry of someone who cherishes the life of God within and who strives to exemplify that life to others is one of peace, reconciliation, passion, and compassion.
