Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

*"Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race."
— Revelation 21:3*

First Reading - Paul and Barnabas reported how God had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.
Second Reading - God's dwelling is with the human race.

Gospel - This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

Reflection

The early Church community already knew how love renews, wipes away tears, opens one to new worlds. They had seen it in Jesus. They had seen it in his relationship with the beggar, the blind man, the embarrassed couple at Cana, the weary sinner. They had known his love themselves. They knew the shape of love Jesus talked about; they'd had a brush with heaven.

And they would soon know the cost as well as the rewards of choosing to respond with humble love. The first disciples gathered around the table at the Last Supper would soon be appalled by the forces of evil that would be unleashed and would break entirely over the earth. And they would see that the love that is stronger than death would reign in the end.

Pope's Universal Intention: The Church in Africa, a Seed of Unity

That the Church in Africa, through the commitment of its members, may be the seed of unity among her peoples and a sign of hope for this continent.

The Bereavement Ministry strives to bring consolation and peer support to those who grieve the loss of a loved one. Informal small group gatherings are facilitated by caring parishioners. Sharing thoughts, feelings, and emotions in the atmosphere of our faith with others who are also going through at personal loss can often bring some peace and acceptance, when understanding that these experiences are normal. Knowing that we are not alone may give some strength and consolation. A nine-week session will begin Monday, June 17th from 6:30pm till 8:00pm. No fee, but registration is required. Contact Deacon John Phalen at 908-500-2050 at Holy Trinity Church, Bridgewater, NJ.
