First Reading - Remember the commandments and hate not your neighbor.

Second Reading - Whether we live, or whether we die, we do so for the Lord.

Gospel - Forgive one another from your heart.

Reflecting on God's Word

Today's Gospel reminds us that love also means being willing to forgive always in life. We fail each other. We sin against each other. Sometimes we do this deliberately, sometimes thoughtlessly, but nonetheless it is painful for the one sinned against. Is forgiveness ever easy? "Seven times?" Peter asks. "Seventy seven times" Jesus replies. Today's reading give us the reason to forgive others; God has forgiven us. Not to forgive is to let anger and wrath poison our hearts. Being unforgiving can imprison a person, resulting in bitterness, revenge and a slow death of the spirit. Not to forgive can be more costly for the one offended.

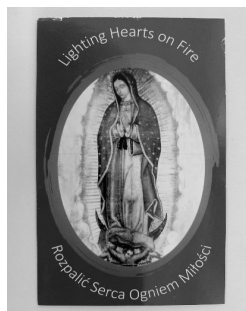

Paul tells us we belong to the Lord, are called to serve him, to do his will, which is the will of the Father. And God's will is that we forgive one another. When the risen Lord first appeared to the disciples in the upper room, he wished them peace, and then gave them the power of the Spirit to forgive. However, this work is not limited to our going to the sacrament of reconciliation. We must forgive those who cause us pain, and thus we must also forgive ourselves for causing the pain to another.

Pope's Universal Intention:

Respect for the Planet's Resources

That the planet's resources will not be plundered, but shared in a just and respectful manner.
