Reflection

Separation of church and state can get messy. Our coins have imprints of great leaders, but the lettering reminds us that it is "In God we trust." The Pharisees thought singularly about taxes, but when we look at our coin, isn't it evident that we see God in all facets of our lives, especially the governing of God's people? As it was in the days of Caesar, God is the ruler over all people; and if authority were not given by God, rulers of any era would have no power.

Things were not perfect for the settlers of our country; but the basis of any government should be the well-being of the nation's people. God is concerned for our well-being, too. When we see a conflict in what political leaders strive to do and what we know God wants us to do, we must follow the higher power. This creates conflict within and possibly between ourselves and those with whom we associate, but it is the conflict that calls us to action.

Please pray for the soul of

Regina Spioch

*May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God,
Rest in Peace. Amen*

Pope's Universal Intention:

The Laity's Mission in the Church

That by the virtue of Baptism, the laity, especially women, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the Church.

We pray to recognize what it means to be a good citizen, giving to our country what is needed for the support of the common good. We pray to discern wisely when loyalty to Christ and the building up of the kingdom of God may call for a response that challenges what civil authorities propose.
