The Epiphany of the Lord January 3, 2020

*All kings shall pay him homage,
all nations shall serve him.*

— Psalm 72:11

First Reading - Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem!
The Lord shines upon you and the glory of the Lord appears over you.

Second Reading - The Gentiles are coheirs, copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Gospel - Magi from the east arrived, looking for the newborn king of the Jews.

LORD OF ALL

Saint Paul was born and brought up as a Jew, deeply aware of the Jewish people as the Chosen Race. Paul expected a Jewish Messiah for the Jews, and may well have believed such a one would be a great military or royal leader like King David. Jesus did not fit that profile. Paul was ardent in his conviction that all those who believed Jesus was the promised Savior were deluded and dangerous, and he was willing to hunt them down and kill them off. After his vision of Jesus on the road to Damascus, Paul's change of heart and mind was profound. He was wrong about Jesus and wrong about Jesus' followers. He was wrong about the Messiah being only for the Jews. He knew that he had been given an insight into the mystery of God's grace. God's love and grace are universal and no human being is beyond that love; only those who choose not to receive it cannot benefit from God's grace. These convictions took Paul and his companions out into the world around the Mediterranean on long and dangerous journeys. Jesus was born a Jew in Bethlehem yet, as Risen Lord, he is Lord of all nations and peoples. Paul knew this. It changed his mind. It changed his heart. It changed the world.

Pope's Universal Intention:

Human Fraternity

May the Lord give us the grace to live in full fellowship with our brothers and sisters of other religions, praying for one another, open to all.
