Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

First Reading - The Ninevites turn from their evil ways in response to Jonah's message.

Second Reading - The world in its present form is passing away.

Gospel - Jesus proclaims, "Repent, and believe in the gospel." The new disciples abandon their nets and follow him.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

First apprentice, then journeyman, and finally master. That's the way a trade is learned. But before beginning the task, one must find a trustworthy master who will accept him for study. Then he must commit himself to the "journey" of learning the trade. By watching and listening to the master, by imitating his example and following his advice, he finally learns his way.

The Scripture this week presents Jonah, a journeyman, and Jesus as master. Why did people trust and follow them? People responded to Jonah because he was traveling the way of the Lord; he had repented and set out on the journey of discipleship. People responded to Jesus because he was a master worthy of their trust and invited them to be his disciples, to walk at his side and study his ways. People followed them not because of their words, but because they knew the way.

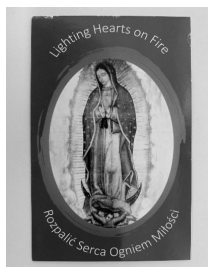

Pope's Universal Intention:

Human Fraternity

May the Lord give us the grace to live in full fellowship with our brothers and sisters of other religions, praying for one another, open to all.
