Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

First Reading - Say to those whose hearts are frightened:
Be strong, fear not! Here is your God.

Second Reading - Show no partiality as you adhere to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel - Jesus makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.

Reflecting on God's Word

The story in this week's Gospel tells us how Jesus helped a man to find his voice. The man whose tongue Jesus touched with his spittle (an element believed to ward off demons) came to speak "plainly." Another word for "plainly" would be "rightly," in the sense of correctly or truly. "Be opened!" Jesus says, and it happens (Mark 7:34). The man then spoke the truth of what Jesus did for him, and honored him.

As we hold firm to our faith in the Lord, Jesus calls us to both speak and act "rightly" in the eyes of the world, caring for those who have little and treating them with the same dignity as those who have much. We are called to imitate Jesus by reaching out tenderly to touch those who have been wounded by life and burdened by the rejection of others. Helping others to hear the sound of love can be done in many quiet ways and with little fanfare.

This Saturday, September 11, marks the 20th Anniversary of that tragic event, made even more tragic by the utterly chaotic ending, leaving many behind to face a brutal death, making a commemoration even more imperative. As a prelude to the 5:00 pm Mass on Saturday, September 11, and the 9:00am Mass on Sunday, September 12, Paul DePass and the choir will present the final movement of his "Americana" which he wrote. Note the feeling of eventual triumph of its final line: "with one single voice we pray, let her united towers stand!"
