*The word of God is living and effective,
sharper than any two-edged sword.
— Hebrews 4:12a*

First Reading - I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. All good things together came to me in her company.

Second Reading - Indeed the word of God is living and effective.

Gospel - It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.

CAMELS AND NEEDLES

Wealth affects every aspect of our lives, and not always for the good. Marriage and friendship can be difficult (“Do they love me or love my money?”). Rich parents worry that their children will do nothing worthwhile with their lives. In ancient times the Jews believed that wealth was a sign of divine favor. To the early descendants of Abraham, wealth meant owning large flocks of sheep, goats, and cattle. By the time Jesus encountered the rich young man in today's Gospel, people acquired wealth by farming the land and through trade. Jesus challenged the man to give away his possessions—to free himself of the burden of wealth that was keeping him from the fullest possible life with God. Wealth in itself is not evil, but evil can result if we come to feel owned by our possessions. Modern Jewish teaching is not far from our own Christian understanding of wealth. The things of this world are important, but temporary. Wealth, whether in the form of skills, time, or money, is not an end but a means: a means to create a home; raise children; provide hospitality; to give time, attention, love, charity, and money; and to share with church and community for the well-being of all. Jesus promises that the one who gives up any possessions for his sake will be saved.

Pope's Universal Intention:

Missionary Disciples

We pray that every baptized person may be engaged in evangelization, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavor of the Gospel.
