Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time October 24, 2021

The Lord has done great things for us; we are glad indeed.

— Psalm 126:3

First Reading - I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble.

Second Reading - It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you .

Gospel - Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way .

I WANT TO SEE

You have to admire Bartimaeus, whose story is told in today's Gospel, for his sheer persistence. A blind beggar, sitting by the road, heard that Jesus—the healer, the for-giver of sins, the son of David—was passing by. Bartimaeus called out again and again to Jesus, although people in the crowd nearby told him to hush. Jesus heard his calls and asked him to approach. “What do you want me to do for you?” said Jesus. “Master, I want to see.” Jesus gave Bartimaeus his sight, saying “Your faith has saved you.” Blindness was a common affliction in ancient times. Some were actually born blind; others lost their sight from various causes, such as cataracts or infections, which nowadays would be treatable. Not only were the blind often forced to beg to survive, but they could not serve as priests or offer sacrifice because of the notion that blindness was the result of sin. God turned things upside down: a man without eyesight was the one who possessed the clearest vision of who Jesus truly was. We do not link physical blindness with sin anymore, but consider spiritual blindness. Spiritual blindness is whatever holds us back from a full Christian life. The usual suspects are pride, jealousy, envy, and greed. But consider also lack of trust in God, failure to really believe the good news of Jesus Christ, weakness in our prayer life, and reluctance to do good—not just for those we love, but especially for those who have harmed us. And let's not forget hope. If we truly believe that sin and death are not the end, and that eternal life waits for those who love and serve God, then we cannot be blind to hope.

Pope's Universal Intention:

Missionary Disciples

We pray that every baptized person may be engaged in evangelization, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavor of the Gospel.

This weekend, October 24, we celebrate World Mission Sunday.

We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call – to bring the Gospel to all. The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith supports the world and witness of the Mission Church, as it provides for priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable.

The Holy Rosary

The word "Rosary" means "Crown of Roses." Our Lady has revealed to several people that each time they say a Hail Mary they are giving her a beautiful rose and each complete Rosary makes her a crown of roses. The rose is the queen of flowers, and so the Rosary is the rose of all devotions. The Holy Rosary is considered a perfect prayer because within it lies the awesome glory of our salvation; the mysteries of joy, light, sorrow and the glory of Jesus and Mary. It is a simple prayer, humble, so much like Mary. It is a prayer we can all say together with her, the Mother of God. With the Hail Mary, we invite Her to pray with us. She joins Her prayer to ours to grant our requests. In every apparition, the heavenly Mother has invited us to say the Rosary as a powerful weapon against evil, to bring us to true peace. With your prayer made together with your Heavenly Mother, you can obtain the great gift of bringing about a change of hearts and conversion.

~ Pray the Rosary every day ~

We pray to recognize what it means to be a good citizen, giving to our country what is needed for the support of the common good. We pray to discern wisely when loyalty to Christ and the building up of the kingdom of God may call for a response that challenges what civil authorities propose.
