MARRIAGES: Specific time is set for the celebration of marriage on Saturdays. Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

FIRST PENANCE, FIRST EUCHARIST, CONFIRMATION:

Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK: Arrangements for Communion Calls to the sick at home may be made by calling the Parish Office.

PARISH REGISTRATION: Our parish welcomes new members to our faith community. Catholic persons new to our area must complete a registration form and be interviewed by the pastor. Please call or stop by the Parish office to complete a registration form. We should also be notified if your address has changed or if you are leaving the parish..

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time January 16, 2022

*Nations shall behold your vindication,
and all the kings your glory.
— Isaiah 62:2*

First Reading - As a bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so God rejoices in the chosen Zion and Jerusalem.

Second Reading - All the varied gifts and talents found in the Christian community are products of the same Spirit.

Gospel - At a wedding festival in Cana, Jesus changes water into wine at his mother's request.

A Grand Wedding

Someone at Cana knew what was important: important for the newlyweds, important for the wedding guests, important for the wedding guests, important for her son and his followers, important for us. It should really come as no surprise that that someone was Mary. Mary knew that a wedding was more than waiters and wine. She recognized that this joyful celebration pointed to the grand wedding of God and humankind.
