First Reading - Ezra read from the book of the law of God to the assembled people. They understood and accepted the law.

Second Reading - As the body with its many parts is still one body, so it is with Christ.

Gospel - While attending worship in the Nazarean synagogue, Jesus reads from the prophet Isaiah and declares himself to be the fulfillment of the prophecy .

Living God's Word

When Ezra read from the book of the law of God, explaining it so the people could understand, they wept, but he said to them: "Today is holy to our Lord. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the Lord must be your strength!" Ask God to let the divine word bring joy to your heart.

Joanna and Jozef Kupczak

World Day of Peace . . . St. Pope John Paul II, 2004

"The Church...has always taught and continues today to teach a very simple axiom: peace is possible. Indeed, the Church does not tire of repeating that peace is a duty. It must be built on the four pillars indicated by St. John XXIII in his Encyclical Pacem in Terris: truth, justice, love and freedom. A duty is thus imposed upon all those who love peace: that of teaching these ideals to new generations, in order to prepare a better future for all mankind.

[F]or the establishment of true peace in the world, justice must find its fulfillment in charity. For this reason I have often reminded Christians and all persons of good will that forgiveness is needed for solving the problems of individuals and peoples. There is no peace without forgiveness!"
