Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

First Reading - The question of whether circumcision is necessary for salvation.

Second Reading - John envisions the holy city, the new Jerusalem.

Gospel - The Holy Spirit, sent by the Father in Jesus' name, will teach us everything.

REFLECTION

Today's reading from Acts witnesses to the role of the Holy Spirit in helping to navigate a way through sensitive issues. The leaders of the church in Jerusalem send a letter to the church in Antioch, proclaiming that the decision they reached came not just from human wisdom, but from working with the Holy Spirit.

Such testimony to the role of the Holy Spirit is also found in the Gospel of John. At the Last Supper, Jesus tells his disciples that the Holy Spirit will come from the Father and "teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you" (John 14:26). Because of this promise, we can have confidence that God will not abandon us. Indeed, the Trinity comes to dwell with those faithful to Jesus' word. When we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, we call on the Holy Spirit both to open our minds to Jesus' word and to transform bread and wine so that we become more fully the body of Christ and the living temple of the Holy Spirit in the world.

Next Weekend, May 28 - 29, there will be a Second Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign.

This campaign engages and builds Catholic Communities in the United States and developing countries using the internet, radio, television and print media. Half of the money collected remains in our Diocese of Metuchen for fund local communication efforts. Your support helps spread the gospel message.

Pope's Universal Intention: For faith - filled young people.

We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary's life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates, and the dedication to service.
