Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

The Ascension of the Lord May 29, 2022

*God mounts his throne amid shouts of joy;
the Lord, amid trumpet blasts.
— Psalm 47:6*

First Reading - Jesus tells the disciples that they will be witnesses to the ends of the earth.

Second Reading - God seated Jesus at his right hand in the heavens.

Gospel - As Jesus blessed his disciples he parted from them and was taken up to heaven.

SENT FORTH

Today we celebrate Jesus' return to heaven. If we struggle to know how to feel about this event, we take our cue from Jesus' disciples. These disciples are first-hand witnesses to the Ascension, returning afterward to Jerusalem, where "they were continually in the temple praising God." Long-time companions of the Lord, they surely feel the pain of physical separation from Jesus. Yet they praise God continually. They accept God's plan, looking forward to the day when Christ will come again. As our reading from Hebrews affirms, Christ will return to "bring salvation to those who eagerly await him." This Good News is almost too much to take in; the Acts of the Apostles explains that an angel has to wake the disciples from their stupor, reminding them to start the Lord's work. Today's readings are our own angel, sending us forth in joyful hope.
