Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 24, 2022

You were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God,

First Reading - Abraham bargains with God to spare the city.

Second Reading - Buried with Christ in baptism, we were also raised with him; all our transgressions are forgiven.

Gospel - Jesus speaks of God's sure response to those who pray.

Reflecting on God's Word

Prayer has always been part of the Christian heritage. Most importantly, Jesus prayed. Jesus, the Son of God, the Word made flesh, the only begotten Son, prayed. We know that he went off by himself to pray. He did this before some of the most important moments in his ministry, like before he chose those who would be with him.

So when one of the disciples asked him to teach them to pray and Jesus responded with the Our Father, it deserves our attention. This prayer reveals the heart of Jesus, and tells us how we should speak to the Father. The prayer has two parts: blessing the Father and calling for his presence in the world, then turning to God for our basic needs of food, forgiveness, and fidelity.

The parables that follow call us to persevere and persist in prayer because God is a Father who will give us his life-blood, in this case, the Holy Spirit, to all who ask. Continue to knock, continue to ask. God will respond.

Pope's Universal Intention: For the Elderly

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.
