PARISH OFFICE HOURS:

Monday to Friday from 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

BAPTISMS: Every third Sunday of the month at 12:00. Parents are expected to attend Pre-Baptismal Classes. Arrangements to be made at the Parish Office. Only practicing Catholics may act as Godparents.

MARRIAGES: Specific time is set for the celebration of marriage on Saturdays. The common Policy for all the Dioceses of New Jersey requires a period of preparation for the sacrament of Marriage, which includes sessions with the parish priest and attendance at either the Pre-Cana conferences or the Engaged Encounter Weekend. Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

FIRST PENANCE, FIRST EUCHARIST, CONFIRMATION:

Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK: Arrangements for Communion Calls to the sick at home may be made by calling the Parish Office.

PARISH REGISTRATION: Our parish welcomes new members to our faith community. Catholic persons new to our area must complete a registration form and be interviewed by the pastor. Please call or stop by the Parish office to complete a registration form. We should also be notified if your address has changed or if you are leaving the parish..

First Reading - Woe to the complacent. Their wanton revelry shall be done away with .

Second Reading - Compete well for the faith. Keep the commandment until the appearance of the Lord Jesus.

Gospel - The parable of Lazarus and the rich man.

Responsibility

Today's readings are a summons to responsibility. They remind us that only by assuming responsibility do we stake a claim in the Kingdom of God. What happened to the rich man in today's Gospel reading? Why was his punishment so severe? Why does the welcoming, hospitable, father Abraham come off as being so strict? The reading does not seem to imply that the rich man was guilty of making Lazarus poor. Nor does it imply that the fellow was even aware of Lazarus' condition. No clear-cut law was broken. No definitive obligation was refused. Of what, then, is the rich man guilty and therefore culpable? The man is condemned not because of what he did not do or because of what he refused to do. Rather, his condemnation derives from something that never occurred to him to do.

Both Amos and Jesus are calling us to recognize that we are responsible for sharing our gifts and for sharing the gifts of others. Both call us to recognize the reality of sin in life and to take responsibility for it, even though we may not have personally "committed" it.

The "complacent in Zion" and the rich man of Jesus' story were condemned not because they were malicious, but because they allowed their own giftedness to make them impervious to the gifts and needs of others. They were, in a word, irresponsible.

Pope's Universal Intention:
For the Abolition of the Death Penalty
We pray that the death penalty, which attacks the dignity of the human person, may be legally abolished in every country.

Padre Pio was born on May 25, 1887
in Pietrelcina, Italy. He was tutored privately until his entry to the novitiate of the Capuchin Friars at the age of 15. Of feeble health but strong will, he completed the required studies and was ordained a priest in 1910.

On September 20, 1918 the five wounds of our Lord's passion appeared on his body, making him the first stig-matized priest in the history of the Catholic Church.
His whole life was marked by long hours of prayer and continual austerity. His letters to his spiritual directors reveal the suffering, physical and spiritual, which accompanied him all through his life. They also reveal his deep union with God, his burning love for the Blessed Eucharist and Our Blessed Lady.

Worn out by over half a century of intense suffering Padre Pio was called to his heavenly reward on September 23, 1968 .

On December 18, 1997, by the reading of the decree on the heroic virtues, the Holy Father John Paul II declared Padre Pio "Venerable.", and on June 16, 2002, Pope John Paul II proclaim Padre Pio, "Saint Pio of Pietrelcina".

First Saturday Devotions

October 1, 2022

In honor of the Blessed Mother's request to Sr. Lucia, whom she appeared to at Fatima,
St. Mary of Czestochowa offers the opportunity to partake in the devotion of the Five First Saturdays.

On the first Saturday of each month, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is offered at 8:30 am, followed by the recitation of the rosary and 15 minutes of quiet meditation on the mysteries. The intention of this devotion is to make reparation for the offenses and blasphemies against the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Confession, which is a requirement, may be made within 8 days prior or after the first Saturday.

The promise to those who console the Virgin Mary through this devotion is the assistance at the hour of death with the graces necessary for their salvation. The Blessed Mother also promised that this devotion will result in the salvation of souls and peace in the world.

LIFE CHAIN

Sunday, October 2, 2022, 2pm - 3:30pm

The Somerset County Life Chain will be in Somerville, along Somerset St. and Mountain Ave. from 2 pm - 3:30 pm. Signs will be available outside Immaculate Conception Church. Signs will be silently held proclaiming the sacredness of human life and seeking God's protection for the child in the womb.
