Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time October 9, 2022

*If we have died with Christ Jesus
we shall also live with him; if we persevere
we shall also reign with him.
— 2 Timothy 2:11-12a*

First Reading - Naaman, cleansed from his leprosy, returns to Elisha and pledges his belief in and allegiance to the Lord.

Second Reading - Remember Jesus Christ, who was raised from the dead. If we persevere, we shall reign with him.

Gospel - After ten lepers are cleansed by Jesus, only one, a Samaritan, returns to give him thanks.

Healing Faith

The sight of a leper in biblical times was enough to singe the tassels off a prayer shawl: clothes torn, hair worn long and shaggy, beards tied, open and oozing sores, shouting to any and all approaching, "Unclean! Unclean!" Bad as it was to be covered with sores, Jewish law demanded that lepers look even more ghoulis to scare people away. So imagine the horror and disgust of Jesus' followers as the ten lepers boldly approach. One of them is a Samaritan, which to the Jews of Jesus' time was like having leprosy twice. All ten lepers shout out to Jesus to pity them. He does, telling them to show themselves to the temple priests, who according to the Law must pronounce them "clean" (healed). Off they go. Along the way, all ten are cured. Yet only one of the ten—right, the Samaritan—returns to offer thanks. Imagine how Jesus feels. Like a leper, maybe?

"There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot resolve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary" - Sister Lucia

Pope's Universal Intention:

For a Church open to everyone

We pray for the Church, ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel; may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity, and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.
