practicing Catholics may act as Godparents.

MARRIAGES: Specific time is set for the celebration of marriage on Saturdays. The common Policy for all the Dioceses of New Jersey requires a period of preparation for the sacrament of Marriage, which includes sessions with the parish priest and attendance at either the Pre-Cana conferences or the Engaged Encounter Weekend. Therefore, arrangements are to be made at least one year in advance and before any social plans are finalized.

FIRST PENANCE, FIRST EUCHARIST, CONFIRMATION:

Though immediate preparation is given to children before receiving these sacraments, it is expected that children receive a Christian education within their family life, through formal religious education classes, and by attending Sunday worship services.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK: Arrangements for Communion Calls to the sick at home may be made by calling the Parish Office.

PARISH REGISTRATION: Our parish welcomes new members to our faith community. Catholic persons new to our area must complete a registration form and be interviewed by the pastor. Please call or stop by the Parish office to complete a registration form. We should also be notified if your address has changed or if you are leaving the parish.

First Reading - The barren deserts will rejoice and flower. Tired bodies will receive strength. Aching hearts will be made glad.

Second Reading - Be patient, for the coming of the Lord is as sure as the rain.

Gospel - Tell of what you hear and see: The blind regain their vision, the crippled their movement, the deaf their hearing.

THE ONE FOR WHOM OUR HEARTS LONG

Put yourself in the scene of today's Gospel passage. John the Baptist is in prison. He has heard stories of what Jesus is doing, and wants reassurance that Jesus is the longawaited Messiah. John's disciples and those who surrounded Jesus were faithful Jews who would have known Isaiah's prophecies by heart. God would send One who would bring sight to the blind, healing to those who were ill, salvation to all who longed to know God's mercy and peace. Jesus' response to the disciples' question rings as powerfully in our ears today as it surely did for the people who were with him that day. His actions are precisely those that the people had been told to expect. Jesus is the One for whom the people have been patiently yet anxiously waiting, like the farmer who waits for the fruits of his labor. Jesus is the One for whom our hearts long.

Life Is an Advent Season ..... Life is a constant Advent season: we are continually waiting to become, to discover, to complete, to fulfill. Hope, struggle, fear, expectation and fulfillment are all part of our Advent experience.

The world is not as just, not as loving, not as whole as we know it can and should be. But the coming of Christ and his presence among us—as one of us—give us reason to live in hope: that light will shatter the darkness, that we can be liberated from our fears and prejudices, that we are never alone or abandoned. May this Advent season be a time for bringing hope, transformation and fulfillment into the Advent of our lives.

Dear Friend of the Missions,

Thank you for the generous World Mission Sunday contribution of $ 1367.00 from the people of St. Mary of Czestochowa.

United with Catholics throughout the world on World Mission Sunday, your parishioners, answered their baptismal call with exuberance and zeal! "You shall be My witnesses" (Acts 1:18), the Lord asked: and they responded ... reaching out to their brothers and sisters in the Missions. Their assistance helps to bring God's love, hope and peace to all His children - especially the poor, as well as those persecuted for the faith, and those yet to know the salvation of the Gospel.

If you have not already done so, I would kindly ask you to send to our office the completed World Mission Sunday contribution envelopes or a list of contributors' names and addresses. The practice of forwarding donation envelopes is unique to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, and I understand, recalling my time as a pastor, that this may be inconvenient. It is a vital step, however, in making the ongoing relationships among the faithful regarding the Pope's Missions for which I would ask your patience and understanding.

Once again, I express my gratitude for all you do in your parish to promote World Mission Sunday and encourage a missionary spirit of prayer and sacrifice among your parishioners. i keep you in prayer and also assure you of the constant remrneu prayers of the recipients of these offerings.

Gratefully in the Lord,

Reverend John G. Hillier Director
